ARTPHAIRE visionary Simon de Pury Celebrates the Handmade.

His first gallery show since stepping down as the chairman of Phillips de Pury & Company in 2012, “Fire!” is an exhibition of sculptures that have been glass-blown or kiln-baked. Including works by 15 artists including Sterling Ruby, Josh Smith, Ai Weiwei and Rosemarie Trockel, the exhibition makes the argument that in the midst of the digital age, there has been a resurgence of hand-made objects. Curated with his wife Michaela, the show will be held at the Upper East Side gallery Venus Over Manhattan, and will be open from September 18 – November 1, 2014.
